Re: Perversion

Dear Editors,

Tom Pruess writes (Register Guard, Letters to the Editor, 11/07/2003) that the Democrats will commit any perversion to regain power. I'll reserve comment on the over the top rhetoric, and let's not go into the history of the "dirty tricks" arm of the GOP started by Donald Segretti under Nixon and continuing to this day, but I wonder if he also includes such perversions as arbitrary purging of voter registration rolls, illegal roadblocks and vigilante "challengers" in heavily Democratic voting districts.

If the Republicans are so pro-democracy why won't they let the people vote?
