

“An English Winter” London Scholarships
Department of English
University of Oregon

The Department of English invites applications from undergraduate English majors for “An English Winter” scholarship to defray the cost of participating in the department’s program in London during the Winter 2010 term. Scholarship amounts will range from $500 to $1000 and must be applied towards the cost of participating in the department’s Winter in London program. If a student is awarded a scholarship and is not accepted to the AHA London program or ultimately does not participate on the program during the Winter 2010 term, the scholarship will be rescinded.

Selection for scholarships will be based on academic merit, financial need, and a brief essay describing how the London program fits into undergraduate study plans and/or broader academic, cultural, or career interests.

You MAY simultaneously apply for “An English Winter” scholarship and the Tims-Ellis departmental scholarship and any other scholarships administered by Study Abroad or other offices or organizations to support your participation in the London program.

Applications should be submitted electronically to the English department’s London Coordinator, Professor Mark Quigley, at mquigley@uoregon.edu.

Application Instructions

A completed application consists of the following:

1. A completed application form. On Part I of the application, please be sure to note whether or not you want to be considered on the basis of financial need. Please note that those without demonstrable financial need are NOT excluded from applying for the scholarship but applicants’ financial need may affect how scholarship funds are allocated.
2. For those claiming financial need, please scan and attach a copy of a current financial award letter (based on FAFSA). Please add any additional explanation or documentation of financial need to Section III of your application.
3. A current unofficial transcript or degree audit.

Completed application materials are due via e-mail at mquigley@uoregon.edu by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 15th, 2009. Questions about any difficulties with providing application materials in electronic format should be addressed via e-mail to Professor Quigley in advance of the submission deadline.
