

The Mission of EPP is to promote awareness, opportunities and educational experiences concerning environmental policy and planning.

EPP Meeting Minutes – Tuesday February 5, 2008

Attended by: Aaron D, Sara S, Nick K, Kate A, Briana Orr, Ray Neff, Katie M, Jenny K, Brett H, Susannah H

I. Welcome/Introductions

II. Activities Check-in

- Tour of Next Step/ BRING (last stop on EmX-drinks to follow) –Feb. 22nd-leave from campus around 2:30ish—meet by Library media services desk. There is a strong biking contingent—email Sara if you have not done so and are interested in going and if you are interested in going and don't have access to a bike. (sschoole@uoregon.edu).
- InDesign Workshop-Feb. 29th 2:30-5pm-taught by Ray Neff-email him if you have ideas for workshop content (rpneff@uoregon.edu). Email Aaron to register-aderwing@uoregon.edu.
 - Dinner at Aaron's to follow—Aaron will provide pizza dough—the rest of us will divide and conquer toppings.
- Next meeting will be followed by a film viewing. Katie M is still pursuing locations (I forget how I offered to help, Katie-can you let me know if there was something I was supposed to do!? Thanks). Ideas were the Hearth and Room 100 in Hendricks or a viewing room in the library.
 - Katie is having a hard time getting copies of the movies. She will be checking in with the Hellios (sp?) resource network (“green-hub” for Eugene) and local libraries. I will be contacting the Environmental Center in Corvallis about the movies that they are showing this month. Everyone else, keep looking and tracking down movies.
- It was mentioned that folks have had trouble posting to the EPP webpage calendar—Brett has fixed this and recently emailed instructions on how to add events. Post there and check there for upcoming events!
- Worm workshop by Katie M—this will take place at the end of a shortened EPP meeting (meet from 3:30-4, talk worms 4-4:30).

III. Volunteer Activities

- McKenzie River Trust tree planting—way to represent, EPP!

IV. Update on Baldwin Film Fest/Lecture Series

See Brett for more details-bholt@uoregon.edu (Brett, since we naturally transition from EPP to film fest these days, do you want me to take notes or do you want to keep taking notes? I have not been taking notes up to this point...)

Update from Matt Peterson's email

* When to have the films: they have a keynote on Thursday from 7-9pm and another on Friday from 5-7pm. We could do the films before both events, after the Friday event (there is a meet and greet with light snacks during that time), or have them at the same time both days (3-5pm). Steve Remington suggested this last idea, saying it's easier to market when they're both the same time. Once we decide what times, we need to reserve rooms.

* What films: The HOPES theme is "Drawing on Difference" - that's their fancy way of saying collaboration between/across disciplines and the new perspectives it can provide. I haven't looked at our list of films to see what might fit.

We need to make these decisions by the end of February, since that is when they need info for the brochure for the conference.

I'm beginning to transition out of my involvement in the festival due to impending parenthood. It would be great if someone wanted to take over the HOPES organizing for me--if you're interested, just let me know. I can't imagine it will be too much work. Mpeter13@uoregon.edu

Update from Tim Brass

I recently sent an email to Barry Lopez, John Daniels and Kathleen Moore (environmental writers) about speaking and am waiting to hear back from them. I will be able to give an update at the next meeting.

Adjourned 4:15-ish—or should I say transition into movie about Trash—Aaron (and Cara) have given up trash for Lent...let's help support that effort! If you're interested in viewing the trash movie—see Aaron or Kate who both have copies.

Let me know if you notice anything out of place in the minutes!
