

Environmental Policymakers and Planners (EPP) is a student organization website. EPP is a dynamic student-powered organization with the mission to "promote awareness, opportunities, and educational experiences concerning environmental policy and planning."

EPP Minutes Thursday October 1st 2009

People Present: Kate, Stella, Sasha, Fraser, Hannah, Ben, Casey, Greg, and Jeremy

- Reviewed EPP purpose and goals
- Established a bimonthly meeting time of Thursdays at noon

- Fall Events
 - Pizza event to be scheduled by second year graduates as a welcome back for students. Showcase planning and policy professionals.
 - Tree planting time TBA.
 - Rafting Trip-McKenzie or Umpqua October 17th. Talk to T? Fraser will check into raft rental.
 - Speaker Series
 - Katie MacKendrick first speaker in early November or December around lunchtime (noon). Hannah is scheduling the room and contacting Katie.
 - Hannah, Fraser and Briana will work on website updates.

- Other ideas for EPP fall events and more
 - Activity for make-a-difference day in October.
 - Outreach to general public about what environmental policymakers and planners are doing and what role their work plays in the general public's life.
 - Exploring our natural areas that have been impacted by environmental policymakers and planners. Taking the lectures out in the real-world...speaker outside.

- A speaker/lecture to connect with students on campus who don't know about policy and planning and show them how it impacts their lives. Save for winter term.
- Information session for undergrads and first-year grad students, grilling second-years about their internships and thesis topics.
- Make announcements to classes about EPP. Talk about our first pizza event.
- Eugene Wetlands tour potentially in December.

Next meeting Tuesday October the 13th at noon in the Hearth.