

EPP Meeting 10/29/09

EPPers: Fraser, Ben, Kate, Stephanie, Lauren, Sasha, Kimmy, Casey

Guest Speakers: Mary and Mark

- Presentation from Marky Nystrom who is the GTF from Office of Sustainability. He presented the University of Oregon Climate Action Plan breaking down our present contributions and plans to reduce them. The university wants to be climate neutral by 2050. The office is presenting to receive feedback.
 - Go to <http://sustainability.uoregon.edu/content/introduction> to read more and make comments on the online discussion forum.
- Mary from the Fair Fish Campaign from Food and Waterwatch. The group is trying to protect the interests of small-time fisherpeople.
- Discussion of involvement in the Mill Center's film series. Potentially start reviewing films from John Baldwin and then make suggestions to the Mill Center.
 - Fraser will send out a list of potential movies.
 - Ben and Kate love the movie Cane Toads and it should be looked at.
 - Kate also suggested getting in contact with Stephanie and Mark who have a bunch of bioneer movies to suggest.
 - Ben suggested a movie about Killer Whales that was on PBS.
 - Ken Burns National Park specials.
- The Beach Clean-up in November just outside of Newport. Four potential people will be going. Spend the weekend out at the yurts and do some trash pick-up on Saturday or Sunday. It is the weekend before Thanksgiving. It will be around $10 per person.
- Devil's Staircase trip with the Outdoor Program. Cascadia Wildlands is working to get the area protected; it is an old-growth forest. Sunday November 8th $10 to go on a guided hike. The presentation is on the 5th of November at 7 pm in the OP room we believe. The hike is limited to ten and you must pre-register at the OP.
- Speaker Series.

- November 12th Don Holtgrieve. Cannery Row: origins of marine conservation biology. In the hearth at noon. Sasha is working on drafting a poster and we will all help
- Katie MacKendrick. Fraser will schedule a room in the EMU. Send Katie an email asking if she has a room preference. Hannah will send the email.
