

THE SUE GRIGSBY SCHOLARSHIP

PHILOSOPHY and GOALS

Sue Grigsby, a graduate of the University of Oregon, who earned her masters degree in Physical Education in 1982, established this scholarship. Ms. Grigsby has taught physical education for several years at Everett Community College in Everett, Washington, and is now the Physical Education Coordinator there. She requested that this scholarship be awarded to a student who demonstrates strong academic ability, good citizenship, and personal integrity.

ELIGIBILITY and CRITERIA

The Sue Grigsby Scholarship was established to aid qualified undergraduates in the Department of Human Physiology. Applicants must have a 3.0 cumulative GPA, sophomore or junior status as a HPHY major, and must have attended the University of Oregon for at least one year (45 quarter credits) prior to receiving any funds from this scholarship. The decision will be made on the applicant's academic promise, career goals, and the strength of commitment to good citizenship and ethics. The amount of the award may vary from year to year, but is traditionally $500. Students who receive the award are encouraged to reapply and compete for this award in appropriate ensuing years.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Students interested in applying for the Sue Grigsby Scholarship should submit the following items to the address listed below no later than March 1st.

1. A cover page indicating the applicant's name, address, and telephone number.
2. A photocopy of undergraduate transcripts.
3. At least one letter of recommendation describing the applicant's academic ability as well as evidence of the criteria stated above.
4. A typed essay of no more than 500 words outlining the applicant's career goals and his/her thoughts on the importance of ethics and integrity in the development of a professional career.

Three copies of the application materials should be submitted to:

The Department of Human Physiology
ATTN: Grigsby Scholarship Committee
122 Esslinger Hall
1240 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97403-1240