

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON • PE & REC • Outdoor Pursuits Program

PEOL 252 – Rock Climbing 2 Syllabus

Instructor: _____ Office: _____
 Phone: _____ Office Hours: _____
 E-mail: _____
 Website: <http://opp.uoregon.edu/climbing/climb.html>

WEEK	TOPIC	READINGS/NOTES
1	Introduction; safety checks	mandatory attendance
2	General fitness, balance, cross training Injury prevention, bouldering games
3	Basic skill drills
4	Footwork and body position
5	Cyclical training	mandatory attendance
6	Cyclical training drills
7	Cyclical training (cont)
8	Anchor principles
9	Mini Comp	Worksheet due
10	Course evaluations	mandatory attendance

Important Information

1. A packet of readings is provided by the instructor. Additional resources are posted on the course website. Recommended reading includes Performance Rock Climbing by Dale Goddard and Udo Neumann.
2. Valid UO ID is REQUIRED in to access the recreation center. Swipe your card, or provide the front desk staff your ID#.
3. Backpacks and other personal belonging must be stored in the s in the cubbies. PE & REC assumes no responsibility for lost or stolen items. Lockers are available for rent. Day-use lockers are available free of charge. Bring our own lock or check one out from Equipment Issue.
4. Equipment is provided for the duration of the course. The instructional team will issue shoes, harnesses, chalk bags and belay devices.
5. You participate at your own risk. We recommend that you have personal health/accident insurance since you are responsible for your own health care costs. You may be asked to secure a physician's statement clearing you to participate in this class.
6. You are required to read and sign a Statement and Assumption of Risk form, a Release, and a Health Information document upon completion of the basic skills test. It is your responsibility to provide your instructor with information regarding injuries, surgeries, medications, or other special considerations which may affect your participation in class.
7. General Safety: Students are required to abide by the protocols and policies established for use of this facility. The instructional team will cover these protocols and policies.
8. Evaluation: You are expected to complete a course and instructor evaluation at the end of this course.