Purpose Statement for Multicultural Requirement (revision)

Action: The Undergraduate Council will accept the following revised wording of the Purpose statement for the Multicultural requirement as emended and forward the statement to the Committee on Courses for their approval and possible inclusion in the Fall 2009 course catalog.

Purpose statement for Multicultural requirement

The Multicultural Requirement provides for focused study of human diversity and the opportunities and challenges of life in a multicultural society. The requirement asks students to complete a minimum of two courses that engage these issues.

The revised statement was adopted unanimously by the Undergraduate Council.
