

Recommendation from Undergraduate Council:

For all multicultural courses to be offered during a particular term, faculty or departments are asked to post electronically, in the Schedule of Classes, course descriptions that are substantially expanded over those provided in the catalog. Course descriptions should be full enough to give students and advisors, who are not experts in the field, a clear understanding of the course content. Moreover, these descriptions should show how the course is related to the general purpose of the multicultural requirement and how it fits the particular multicultural category in which it is offered. Beyond the Schedule of Classes, these expanded course descriptions should be posted in course syllabi, both online and in hard copy (if hard copies exist.)

Purpose Statement for the Multicultural Requirement:

The purpose of the Multicultural requirement is to introduce students to the richness of human diversity and to the opportunities and challenges of life in a multicultural society. The requirement asks you [students] to complete two courses that engage these issues.
