

Writing Update from Nov. 02 Review

Writing requirement status in Fall 2002 for Fall 2001 freshman admits

367 students completed 121 but not 122

248 students had not completed WR 121 and were not registered for 121 in F 02
In November 2002 Academic Advising mailed postcards:

HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN SOMETHING?

Writing 121 and WR 122/123 are important classes that provide critical foundations for upper-level course work.

DON'T DELAY MEETING THIS REQUIREMENT ANY LONGER!
Consider registering for WR 121 Winter term!

If you have questions about the UO Writing Requirement please don't hesitate to contact:

The Office of Academic Advising 364 Oregon Hall 346-3211
Department of English 118 PLC 346-1516
Your major department ,

If you have completed equivalent courses at another college, send your official transcripts to the UO Office of Admissions

Writing requirement status in Fall 2002 for all active juniors/seniors (90+ credits)

461 had not met the UO writing requirement, and were not registered for WR 122
in Fall 2002

A review of a random sample of 52 DARS reports:

No Writing 121 or 122 Credit	12
(includes 5 international students, 9 transfer, 3 freshman admits and 2 who were registered for WR 121 fall 02)
Admitted as Transfer Students	21 (14 in Fall 02)
Music Majors	4 (taken 121 not 122)
Earned credit for 122/123 but NOT 121	6
F02 reg. for WR 122/123 then dropped	3
WR 121 AP credit or SAT waiver of 121	3